8:30am – 9:45am
The Music Center's Legislative Breakfast
35th Annual Very Special Arts Festival
Dorothy Chandler Pavilion, 5th Floor –
Parking: Garage parking at the Music Center garage under the Plaza, accessed via Grand Ave. between 1st and 2nd streets. They will validate MOF's parking ticket before he leaves. You would enter from the sidewalk on Grand Avenue through the glass doors under the sign "Banquet Hall," just North of Kendall's.
Agenda:

8:30AM Event Begins.

8:45AM Program begins, 8:50AM Steve Rountree will introduce the County Supervisors present and invite them to each say a few words. Following these remarks, we will recognize LAUSD students who submitted art work as part of a poster contest and present a brief performance by students from a school in Torrance.

9:25AM Everyone will be escorted down to the Music Center Plaza for the opening of the Festival.

9:30AM Elected officials will be invited to come on the outdoor stage to be introduced for the "opening ceremony."

Following the opening, photo opportunity for MOF with students.

9:30am – 10:00am
Presser: GMO-Free LA Motion
City Hall –
Re: CM Koretz & Boinin invited him to speak. MOF invited to speak.
Note: 9:30AM Presser. The press conference is timed to help out with the Washington State ballot Initiative 522, which, like California's Prop 37, seeks to label genetically-engineered food products for sale in the State of Washington. Also like Prop 37, the measure faces massive financial opposition from the pesticide and junk food industries and can use PR help.
